

Top 10 Reasons for Superannuates to Attend the Banquet

10. You get a superannuate pen.
9. You receive a guest book with important signatures.
8. It's a time for the STA president to shake your hand.
7. This is a teachers recognizing teachers night.
6. The STA presents you with a dozen roses.
5. After 30 years you've earned a free meal for yourself and partner.
4. Milestones need to be celebrated in your life.
3. An opportunity for family, friends and colleagues to honour you.
2. You get a complimentary reception with free drinks prior to the banquet.
1. It's an evening to celebrate that you have only one week left with school stressors.

Did you know that:

- You can attend the banquet without proceeding in with the other superannuates.
- You can attend the banquet without coming to the front to be formally recognized.
- You can attend the banquet without anyone knowing this is your retirement year.
- You can participate in all of the above activities.

Retirement is the time when you never do all the things you intended to do when you were still working.